MOZAIC

WELCOME TO OUR 55TH FESTIVAL!

It is my pleasure to welcome you to Festival Mozaic's 2026 San Luis Obispo Summer Music & Arts Festival.

Each summer, we bring together exceptional artists and an engaged community to explore music and the arts with curiosity, rigor, and joy. The 2026 season continues this mission, pairing timeless masterworks and contemporary voices in performances designed for meaningful listening and discovery.

This year carries added significance as our nation commemorates the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. In honor of this milestone, Festival Mozaic proudly features American composers with strong ties to California, presented in collaboration with the Coastal Awakening project. Their works reflect diversity, innovation, and independent spirit that continue to shape our cultural landscape.

Throughout the Festival, audiences can experience a wide range of programs: chamber music, orchestral concerts, family events, lectures, and more. We are proud to be collaborating with many local arts organizations to present dancers, choirs, poets, films, and contemporary artists. Our Notable Encounters and Community Midday Concerts provide opportunities to engage more deeply with the music and the creative process.

What truly sets the San Luis Obispo Music and Arts Festival apart are its settings and community: historic missions, lush vineyards, local libraries, neighborhood churches, concert halls, and the audiences who bring these spaces to life. It is a privilege to share this music with you in a place that values both connection and artistic excellence.

Thank you for joining us. I look forward to welcoming you this summer.

Festival Mozaic is proud to present the second annual Young Artist Program, a groundbreaking initiative in collaboration with the esteemed Colorado College Summer Music Festival (CCSMF). A small group of students was selected as part of the CCSMF audition process to form the Festival Mozaic "Young Artist String Quartet." They will travel to the SLO Music & Arts Festival to participate in chamber music coachings and community outreach events during the first portion of the Festival, July 15-19. During that time the Young Artists will perform five free mini-concerts at our local SLO County Libraries guided by mentors Scott Yoo and Bion Tsang. The program will culminate in a full-length Community Concert on July 19 at the Harold J. Miossi CPAC, in which the Young Artists will be joined in performance by their mentors.

When the Main Stage concert series begins, the Young Artists will join their professional colleagues on stage and perform side-by-side in chamber music concerts, Notable Encounters, and the final orchestra performance.

CHAMBER CONCERT 1

WEDNESDAY, JULY 22, 7:30 PM
Harold J. Miossi CPAC, Cuesta College

The SLO Music & Arts Festival kicks off with an exciting opening night chamber music concert featuring three masterpieces. A lovely quartet by Haydn opens the concert, dubbed the “Lark” because of a famous singing theme in the first movement. Martinů's sextet is a complex piece that brought the composer recognition in the U.S. after it was premiered in Washington D.C. and received the 1932 Coolidge Prize. Closing the concert is Bloch's agitated and energetic first piano quintet, which he composed while serving as director of the Cleveland Institute of Music.

FRANZ JOSEF HAYDN

String Quartet, op. 64, no. 5 “Lark”

BOHUSLAV MARTINŮ

String Sextet, H. 224

ERNEST BLOCH

Piano Quintet No. 1, B. 43

Ernest Bloch had a profound impact on music education in California. He was one of the first directors of the San Francisco Conservatory and among the founders of Santa Barbara's Music Academy of the West. Later he taught at Berkeley for over a decade, where he was named Professor Emeritus upon his retirement.

 PRE-CONCERT LECTURE: Arrive early for a 6:30 PM lecture with Dr. Alyson McLamore on the mainstage.

Frank Bridge Quintet, 2025

CHAMBER CONCERT 2

FRIDAY, JULY 24, 4:00 PM
Patty Boyd Concert Hall, Allan Hancock College

Presented in collaboration with

Festival Mozaic is proud to return to the Patty Boyd Concert Hall in Santa Maria, this time for a full-length chamber music concert. Adams's Shaker Loops, a string septet inspired by the Shaker communities of 1700s New England, kicks off this program. Following is a string quintet by Brahms that features two violas rather than two violins. Closing the concert is Dohnányi's first published work, a piano quintet that took the classical music world by storm receiving high praise from his superstar contemporary Brahms.

JOHN ADAMS

Shaker Loops

ERNŐ DOHNÁNYI

Piano Quintet No. 1 in C minor, op. 1

JOHANNES BRAHMS

String Quintet No. 1 in F major, op. 88

While he was raised in Massachusetts, John Adams built the bulk of his career in California teaching at the San Francisco Conservatory and holding resident positions with the San Francisco Symphony and Los Angeles Philharmonic. His 1982 piece Shaker Loops helped him earn a place as one of the most famous living composers.

PRE-CONCERT LECTURE: Arrive early for a 3:00 PM lecture with Dr. Alyson McLamore in the Hancock College Choir Room.

BAROQUE IN THE VINES

SATURDAY, JULY 25, 7:30 PM
Serra Chapel, Shandon

Scott Yoo leads this annual hilltop Baroque concert at the picturesque setting of Serra Chapel in Shandon. Single tickets for this event will go on sale May 13th.

Festival Mozaic Baroque Ensemble
Scott Yoo, leader

GEORGE FRIDERIC HÄNDEL

Concerto Grosso in F major, op. 6, no. 2

NOAM ELKIES

Brandenburg Concerto No. 7

HENRY COWELL

Quartet for Flute, Oboe,
Cello, and Harpsichord

ANTONIO VIVALDI

Bassoon Concerto in D minor, RV 481

J. S. BACH

Brandenburg Concerto No. 2 in F major, BWV 1047

Henry Cowell was one of the leading figures in avant-garde American music in the first half of the 20th century. A native Californian, he spent time at the theosophical community of Halcyon, near Arroyo Grande in San Luis Obispo County. The quartet on this program is Baroque-sounding, but still displays very innovative compositional techniques

TIP: Parking is limited, please carpool if possible. The grounds open and shuttle service begins at 6:00 PM. Indoor seating is provided on backless benches. Some benches are provided outdoors or you may bring your own chair. Beer, wine, and snacks will be available for purchase. Picnics are also allowed, or you may pre-order a boxed picnic dinner provided by the Wandering Eats food truck. Visit festivalmozaic.org for more information.

TAIMANE

HAWAI'I BORN ARTIST & COMPOSER

SUNDAY, JULY 26, 4:00 PM
See Canyon Fruit Ranch

"If you didn't know ukulele virtuosity is a thing, get on board. Taimane is not just in her own league on the instrument; she's a captivating performer as well. And on top of that, she's a masterful songwriter and interpreter. Ukulele, meet your triple threat."

—GRAMMY.COM

Taimane translates to "diamond" from Samoan and perfectly reflects the different facets of her nature. Whether delicately finger-picking through Bach or radically ripping through Led Zeppelin, Taimane has the ability to morph genres – from classical to rock to flamenco – and stretch her instrument far beyond the familiar melodies of Hawai'i, where she grew up.

When Don Ho caught wind of the talented teen, he invited her to join him as part of his venerable variety show at the Waikiki Beachcomber, further fueling Taimane's desire to perform for and connect with audiences. In addition to performing her own distinctive versions of well-known pieces, Taimane weaves in original compositions that are as far ranging as her musical tastes. With the fierceness of a rocker, and the grace of a dancer, Taimane and her music are wowing ever-larger audiences. She lights up rooms wherever she goes, sparkling like the diamond that she is.

See Canyon Fruit Ranch

TIP: The grounds open at 3:00 PM. Table seating is provided at tables of eight towards the front of the lawn. For lawn seating you should bring your own low-back chair or blanket. Beer, wine and snacks will be available for purchase. Picnics are also allowed, or you may pre-order a boxed picnic dinner provided by the Wandering Eats food truck.

NOTABLE ENCOUNTERS

---

Join Scott Yoo and the Festival Artists as they take you on a “museum docent’s tour” of Bloch’s Piano Quintet, Novacek’s Music for 8, and Dvorák’s “American” String Quintet. They will discuss the pieces’ histories, the composers’ influences and musical styles, and perform some selections from the works. These are amazing opportunities to learn a little more about some of this great music before you attend the concerts.

JOHN ADAMS

THURSDAY, JULY 23, 2:00 PM
Octagon Barn Center, San Luis Obispo

Scott Yoo leads an interactive musical discussion of Shaker Loops, a string septet by American minimalist composer John Adams. Shaker Loops began as a string quartet called Wavemaker, which used repeated oscillating notes to emulate waves. While it was a total flop after its premiere, Adams reworked the piece using his students at the San Francisco Conservatory as testers. The idea of musical “looping” dates from the era of tape recorders where small lengths of tape attached end-to-end could repeat ad infinitum. In this piece, the musicians repeat alternating notes over and over (“shaking”). The term “shaker” also suggests Adams’s childhood memories of growing up near a defunct Shaker community in New Hampshire.

After your behind-the-scenes guide to this piece, mingle with the musicians and fellow attendees over afternoon tea! You’ll indulge in hors d’oeuvres, finger sandwiches, and treats, complete with Central Coast wines, while you discuss what you learned during the Notable Encounter.

CHAMBER CONCERT 3

MONDAY, JULY 27, 4:00 PM
Cass Winery, Paso Robles

CHAMBER MUSIC & WINE

Scott Yoo is joined by sommelier Cassandra Tarantino to host this curated wine and musical experience. Clarke's Midsummer Moon and Glazunov's Rêverie orientale, both ethereal tone poems, set the stage for this program. Israeli-American composer Shulamit Ran's Lyre of Orpheus for string sextet tells the sorrowful story of a deep love lost. Following is Prokofiev's playful quintet for oboe, clarinet, violin, viola and bass. Rounding out the program is Turina's piano quartet, a piece infused with the spirit of his native Spain.

REBECCA CLARKE

Midsummer Moon

SHULAMIT RAN

Lyre of Orpheus

JOAQUÍN TURINA

Piano Quartet in A minor, op. 67

ALEXANDER GLAZUNOV

Rêverie orientale

SERGEI PROKOFIEV

Quintet in G minor, op. 39

Each chamber music selection will be paired with a Cass wine and an appetizer. Your hosts will guide you through the selections, offering insight into the musical works, drawing connections between the wine and the music, and offering tasting notes for the wines.

CHAMBER CONCERT 4

WEDNESDAY, JULY 29, 7:30 PM
Mission San Luis Obispo de Tolosa

This year's annual concert in Mission San Luis Obispo features three octets for very different ensembles. Norman's Gran turismo opens the program, using perpetual virtuosity of eight violins to simulate the sounds of race cars. A string octet by Festival Mozaic's own John Novacek and Stravinsky's "neoclassical" octet for a variety of wind instruments round out the first half. After intermission, Scott Yoo conducts the "Gran Partita" wind serenade, one of Mozart's most beloved masterpieces.

ANDREW NORMAN

THE SACRED VEIL

THURSDAY, JULY 30, 7:30 PM

Performing Arts Center San Luis Obispo

“Whitacre is that rare thing, a modern composer who is both popular and original”

— THE DAILY TELEGRAPH, LONDON

Grammy Award-winning composer and conductor, Eric Whitacre, is among today's most popular musicians. A graduate of The Juilliard School, his works are performed worldwide, and his ground-breaking Virtual Choirs have united well over 100,000 singers from more than 145 countries. Among his recent accolades and awards, Eric received the Richard D. Colburn Award from the Colburn School and an Honorary Doctor of Arts from Chapman University (CA). Eric served consecutive terms as Artist in Residence with the Los Angeles Master Chorale and currently holds the position of Visiting Composer at Pembroke College. He's also an Ambassador for the Royal College of Music in London and is proud to be a Yamaha artist. A long-term relationship with Decca Classics has produced several no.1 albums which have enduring success. Recorded with vocal supergroup VOCES8 and released in 2023, Home features Eric's work The Sacred Veil alongside other works spanning his thirty-year composition career.

---

The Sacred Veil is a 12-movement work and the most recent collaboration between Eric Whitacre and poet/lyricist Charles Anthony Silvestri telling a story of life, love and loss. Scored for mixed chorus, piano, and cello, Whitacre will conduct a choir comprised of Los Angeles Master Chorale members singing alongside members of several San Luis Obispo County vocal ensembles.

 PRE-CONCERT LECTURE: Arrive early for a 6:30 PM lecture with Eric Whitacre from the main stage.

CHAMBER CONCERT 5

FRIDAY, JULY 31, 7:30 PM
Harold J. Miossi CPAC, Cuesta College

The 2026 Chamber Music Series wraps up with an exciting and diverse program of music. Before he became a Hollywood film score composer, Korngold received incredible praise for his sextet, with critics calling it the finest such work since Brahms. Steve Reich's Double Sextet is up next, which combines two identical sextets of flute, clarinet, violin, cello, piano and vibraphone for a very unique sonic experience. Dvořák's third string quintet closes the program, nicknamed "American" as he composed it while living in Spillville, Iowa.

STEVE REICH

Double Sextet

ERICH KORNGOLD

String Sextet in D major, op. 10

ANTONÍN DVOŘÁK

String Quintet No. 3, op. 97, B. 180
"American"

After studying at Juilliard, Steve Reich moved to California and received a master's degree from Mills College in Oakland. He became one of the leading "minimalist" composers and was a pioneer in techniques including phasing, rhythmic repetition, and tape looping. His Double Sextet received the 2009 Pulitzer Prize for Music.

PRE-CONCERT LECTURE: Arrive early for a 6:30 PM lecture with Dr. Alyson McLamore on the mainstage.

COMMUNITY MIDDAY CONCERTS

ORCHESTRA CONCERT

SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 7:30 PM
Performing Arts Center San Luis Obispo

Scott Yoo leads the Festival Mozaic Orchestra in a thrilling finale concert of the 2026 San Luis Obispo Summer Music & Arts Festival. Earl Kim's Cornet opens the program, featuring Jane Kaczmarek as narrator. Following this is Rachmaninoff's second piano concerto, one of the composer's most enduringly popular pieces, with Sergei Babayan as soloist. After intermission is Brahms's second symphony, a piece in many moods that ultimately ends with an exuberant finale.

EARL KIM

Cornet

SERGEI RACHMANINOFF

SHOW YOUR SUPPORT

At Festival Mozaic we bring powerful live performances to stunning venues in San Luis Obispo County, provide meaningful hands-on opportunities for young artists, and produce memorable and inspiring experiences. The single most important key to our future is the generosity of you – our extraordinary philanthropic community. We count on you to play a part in building our future and like it has so many times before, your support will enable us to continue growing stronger, more vibrant, and more creative than ever.

DISCOVER SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY

Conveniently located halfway between Los Angeles and San Francisco on the Central Coast of California, beautiful San Luis Obispo county is home to a variety of sights, sounds and activities. In addition to the world-class music at Festival Mozaic, visitors to this area can enjoy breathtaking ocean views and beaches; award-winning wineries; farm-to-table restaurants; idyllic areas for hiking, biking, surfing, and kayaking; a world-famous outdoor Farmer's Market; and several relaxing spas and hot springs. Plan your lodging, restaurant, dining and other activities at festivalmozaic.org/stay-and-play

EXPLORE WINE COUNTRY

Our generous wine sponsors will offer special discounts on wine purchases and tastings during the Summer Festival if you present your ticket or ticket stub in the tasting room. Cheers!
